

The Winery

The West Cape Howe Winery was purpose built in 1997 as Western Australia's first contract winemaking facility, to provide a much sought after service to the many boutique growers and producers of the Great Southern wine region. In 2000, with a few vintages under their belts, the West Cape Howe range was released.

West Cape Howe produce in excess of 60,000 cases annually from their new 5000 ton winery based in Mount Barker.

Winemakers

Renowned winemaker, Gavin Berry, heads the West Cape Howe team. Highly regarded internationally for making world class wines, he joined the team in mid 2004, following a successful 16 year career as CEO for Plantagenet Wines. Gavin's hands on approach in winemaking and marketing makes him an integral part of the Company's ongoing success.

Senior winemaker, Dave Cleary, has grown with the brand since its inception, has overseen the development of the range and has been instrumental in creating West Cape Howe's unique and successful wine styles.

The Wines

A careful blend of premium fruit parcels sourced from around the Great Southern area make up the selection of contemporary, vibrant and fun range of wines. These include Unwooded Chardonnay, Riesling, Viognier, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Shiraz, Tempranillo, Shiraz Viognier and Cabernet Sauvignon.
