Longview Reds Have Arrived!

The long awaited NEW LOOK Longview red wines are ready to order now!

2007 “Yakka” Shiraz

90 POINTS – Wine Spectator “Generous, focusing its blackberry and black pepper flavors on a tight, crisp frame, lingering well on the expressive finish.” Harvey Steiman

90 POINTS – Wine & Spirits Magazine “Decant this wine to get past the superripe scents of blackstrap molasses and chocolate. With air, it yields layers of spice, from fennel and anise to orange. Blackberry flavors balance the substantial alcohol.”

90 POINTS – Wine Enthusiast “Not a typically fruit-driven Shiraz, Longview’s 2007 Yakka boasts pungent scents of smoke, leather and marinated beef, then delivers earthy, meaty flavors. It’s full in the mouth, with a creamy texture that turns chewier on the finish—perfect alongside rare beef or lamb.” Joe Czerwinski

95 POINTS – James Halliday’s Australian Wine Companion “Incredibly vibrant colour; truly cool-grown black fruits and spice, notably cinnamon and clove; the palate is generous and layered with terrific acidity framing the luscious fruit on offer and silky fine tannins sustain a very long finish.” James Halliday

GOLD MEDAL – 2009 Decanter World Wine Awards

2007 “Devil’s Elbow” Cabernet Sauvignon

90 POINTS “EDITOR’S CHOICE” – Wine Enthusiast “A reliable producer focused on the regions around Adelaide, Longview has turned out a full-bodied, chewy, high-octane Cab that takes jammy cassis and chocolate syrup notes and leavens them with more elegant accents of cedar and tobacco.” Joe Czerwinski

94 POINTS – James Halliday’s Australian Wine Companion “A particularly good cabernet, transcending the vintage and its alcohol, for it is a cedary, medium-bodied wine with delicious blackcurrant fruit and persistent but superfine tannins.” James Halliday
