Great Reviews for Neudorf Vineyards

90 points 2007 Nelson Chardonnay

"... has a very well defined nose. Nice sense of reserve with subtle hazelnut and almond touches coming through. Medium-bodied on the palate, vibrant acidity, refined with touches of pineapple and dried mango towards the finish. Excellent." NM

91 points 2007 "Tom's Block" Pinot Noir

"... has an austere reserved nose that needs time to open up – but it is worth the wait as it unfurls with cranberry, raspberry leaf and redcurrant aromas with a slight stalky edge in the background. The palate is medium-bodied, fine tannins, cranberry and dark plum, nice definition and balance towards the finish that has great length. Excellent." NM

92 points 2007 Moutere Chardonnay

"... has a very refined bouquet with notes of dried pineapple, dried mango and apricot, all with great precision. The palate has a creamy entry but the oak is well judged with good acidity. Touches of butterscotch inflecting the minerally finish. Superb length – this is a classy number." NM

92 points 2007 Moutere Pinot Noir

"... is relatively taciturn on the nose with dried herbs and a slight leafy quality. The palate is ripe and tannic, nice cohesion here with dark cherries, cranberry and a touch of spice on the crisp finish." NM
