90 POINTS

2007 Neudorf Nelson Chardonnay

"Although it is ripe, rich and succulent, there's an overall sense of purity that is extremely attractive, and the structural balance is very nicely wrought. Relatively opulent wines such as this can be tiring to drink, but that is not at all the case in this instance." Michael Franz

92 POINTS

2007 Neudorf "Moutere" Chardonnay

"... marked by gorgeously ripe fruit recalling baked apples and subtle tropical fruits. This high-end bottling also shows some very tasteful work with wood, and the spicy oak notes are harmoniously integrated with the fruit notes. Although the wine is full-bodied and very generous in ripeness and flavor, there's plenty of acidity to provide structure and cut in the finish."
