“From the rapidly expanding growing regions of the Southern Hemisphere, there’s a glut of fine wine flowing onto the market, providing wine lovers with exciting wine-buying opportunities.” Harvey Steiman Issue: 15 October 2009

93 POINTS

2005 GIBSON AOV C Barossa Shiraz

“A brooding, fascinating glass of wine, lithe and supple from beginning to end, with a gravelly character that adds interest to the ripe blackberry and cherry fruit, nicely shaded with hints of pepper and bacon. Drink now through 2017.” HS

88 POINTS

2004 GIBSON Wilfreda Blend

“Firm in texture, with meaty, slightly gamy notes mingling with the focused blackberry and smoke flavors. Shiraz, Mourvèdre and Grenache.” HS

84 POINTS

2008 KILDA Shiraz

*“Bargain Bin” – The Least Expensive Deliver The Goods
“Ripe and focused, with solid berry flavors.” HS*

90 POINTS

2007 LONGVIEW “Yakka” Shiraz

“Generous, focusing its blackberry and black pepper flavors on a tight, crisp frame, lingering well on the expressive finish.” HS

88 POINTS

2007 VINACEOUS “Raconteur” Cabernet Sauvignon

“Dense up front, with a strong minty character that runs through the dark, stewed cherry flavors, deftly balancing richness with an open, airy texture on the finish. Drink now through 2011.” HS

87 POINTS

2006 WEST CAPE HOWE Shiraz

“Bright and peppery, with a slight gamy edge to the cherry and spice flavors, lingering easily.” HS
